THE PHILIPPINES.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette
As a pretact for acquiring Asiatic dominion and ruling the dusky natives of the Philippine archipelago, the imperialists urge that we are under an obligation to govern them because we expelled the Spaniard, and the natives on even't the capacity to govern themselves. If the Spaniard was the robber they say he was instead of our having incurred an obligation to the Filipino by driving him out, the Filipino is in debt to us for the service. The Filipino does not agree with the expaniant about our duty to govern him. All he asks of the United States is to let him alone. The same hypocritical plea is made for imperialism that was given as a reason for declaring warnot lust of empire but suffering humanity. It is said that when the war closed the sufferers in whose behalf it was pretended to have been begun were all dead. When the treaty was signed in Paris Spain badn't relinquished the everlengety of the Philippines, I work it can be removed by rejecting the creating to take the Spaniard return. So the reason urged for ratification of the treaty is created by the treaty itself; it can be removed by rejecting the clause relating to the Philippines. It wong has been done the Filipino by the overthrow of Spain it can be removed by rejecting the clause relating to the Spaniard return. If our only motive is philanthropy and not hunger for land, then there is no other way to rule the continuous and abill of attainder that is a sentence of death without a judicial trial. This power has a slooping glant which the imperialism will wake up. for there is no other way to rule the territories and so near to the States would have rebelled against it. Yet it is a slooping glant which the imperialism will wake up. for there is no other way to rule the Philippines. The Anglo-Saxon is just as unfitted for despoism as the Filipino of the Philippines is the Philippines. The Anglo-Saxon is just as unfitted the overthrow of Spain it can be remail. Full size 50c. Trial size paired by letting the Spaniard return. If our only motive is philanthropy and not hunger for land, then there is no more reason for expelling Spain from the Philipines than from the Canaries or any other possessions. As the Fili pinos have long been in rebellion against foreign rulers and want local self-goverument it does not look like we had taken from them anything they wante'i to keep. If we have then restore the Spaniard; if we have't then we have incurred no obligation except to come away. The Filipinos are as much opposed to American as to Spanish rule, while the air harm is full of talk about while the air here is full of talk about sympathy for the Filipincs. It is hard to sympathize with a people who don't want your sympathy. By the terms of he treaty the United States is to pay Spain $20,000,000 for the privilege of setting as quardian of the Filipings dur acting as guardian of the Filipinos during the r infancy, and until they become capable of self government. We now hold only the city of Manila while the ten million Malays are in line of battle and say that we shall not even stay there. They evidently don't regard American protection as a boon. In taking charge of the Philippines we relieve Spain of a burden. She only held them from pride and for the pres-tige of colonial empire. The imperialists have changed their tune on account of the drift of sentiment against contracting foreign entanglements; now they say they only intend temporary occupation to give time to the Filipinos to grow up and organize to govern themselves But the Filipinos are already organized in battle array in defiance of

That the Filipinos will yield to their persuesion no one acquainted with the situation believes. pneumonia, it was observed that the quainted with the situation believes. I'here is a lot of nonsense talked about people being incapable of self-government. All people are capable of self-government; but they must govern in their own way. The Filipinos are as well advanced in civilization as the South American greasers whose quarrel with England our government assumed a few years ago. The Drevius attack was pever followed by that disumed a few years ago. The Dreyfus trial is shocking to us—it is not so to Frenchmen. If the United States is determined to play the role of Don Quixote why not order Dewey's squad-Quixote why not order Dewey's ron to liberate the political convicts in New Caledonia? I am opposed to undertaking the job of governing the Philippines, or the world; the Filipinoscan govern themselves. They do not want us as masters, which we must be if we govern them at all—that is the natural relation of superior to inferior. races. They can never be citizens.
They are fit to govern themselves, but nobody else; they will be happy and contented if we let them alone.

Because the Antonines were benevo-lent despots is no reason for vesting in the President of the United States the antocratic power of a Foman emperor for bestowing in perpetuity what was only given to Thomas Jefferan for a year. To try to rule over the Philipp nes without the exercise of arbitrary power and an army to support it would be as vain a task as Xerxes' attempt to chain the Helespont.
